

MOHAMAD ANNAN

A very special asset to ASC, Mohamad Annan's background consists of civil and structural engineering designs, environmental studies, and management. Including preparation of plans for various buildings types, land development, improvement drafting and design; structural design of residential and commercial buildings; preparation of specifications and administration of construction and engineering contracts; and management of construction projects.

REGISTRATION: *EIT certified, license # XE096399.

EDUCATION: Bachelor of Science, Civil Engineering,
California State University, Fresno CA, May 1995.
Associate in Arts Degree, Dec. 1991,
Bakersfield College, Bakersfield, CA

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATION: American Society of Civil Engineers

RELATED EXPERIENCE:

- City of Clovis, Clovis, CA
Engineering and Survey Services Department:
Prepared conditions of approval for land development projects, conduct field investigations, reviewed subdivision plans to assure compliance with standards, applicable ordinances and codes. Interacted with developers, consultants and other local agencies.
- Lars Anderson & Associates, Inc., Fresno, CA
Engineering and Survey Services Division:
Prepared Site and development plans for private developments such as Home Depot, K-Mart, and Rite Aide. Designed flood control facilities; performed economical analysis and special reports. Assisted in the review of subdivision improvement plans to ensure compliance with engineering principles and development standards/regulations. Prepared plans, contracts and specifications for a variety of construction projects.